

Camp Mystic

Campers & Counselors and their families are invited to a safe space at Bo's Place

Camp Mystic campers and counselors will have space to talk about their shared experience of being at camp during the flood.

Parents will have space to connect and comfort.

Bo's Place grief support team will offer tools for coping, guiding gentle conversations, and holding space for all ages.

Whether you want to talk, listen, create, or just be – there's a place for you here.
